EXPANSION

OR OVER 40 years we have proudly claimed that ours was a purely mail-order business: that more orders came to us by mail from Fiji and New Zealand and such distant places than were received over the counter of our seed-store.

In spite of the inducement offered to us from time to time by those customers who would prefer the more personal contact we have up to the present time resisted all suggestions that we should move to the city and even now the great city of Sydney has no attraction for us.

Under the mail order business we have prospered and are now, in hundreds of cases supplying the seed wants of the grandsons of many of our early customers.

There have however, since the Great War, been many changes, and a new race of gardeners is springing up to whom the personal service of a trained seedsman is a great appeal. As many thousands of these are settled in the outer suburban area centreing on Parramatta we have decided to cater for them by opening a branch shop at 219a Church Street, Parramatta (3 doors from Lennox Bridge), where we are stocking a complete range of "Rumsey's Honest Seeds," and will carry a stock of specimen plants and fruit trees in season. Skinner Irrigation nozzles and parts will also be kept in stock.

This branch will be in charge of a member of our firm, who has the ability and training requisite to give the best advice on all gardening matters which will be supplied free of cost to our clients.

Our mail order business will still be carried on from the old address at Dundas and all correspondence should be addressed

In England and Scotland it is looked upon as the best eating and cooking variety, mainly because it contains over 27 per cent. dry matter as against 20 per cent to 23 per cent. in most standard varieties. Trials last season proved this to be an excellent home garden variety for up-land areas. 7lbs., 1/9; 14lbs., 3/3; 28lbs., 6/-; 1 cwt., 20/-, freight extra.

TERMS OF BUSINESS:—

The terms on which our prices are based are cash with order. For the convenience of customers we also use the Post Office and Railway "Cash on delivery" systems, which is a little more costly than postal notes, but includes registration. For full particulars see Page 8. Plants are not sent "Cash on delivery" by post.

For cash we accept Commonwealth Bank notes in registered letters, Australian postal notes and money orders. For larger amounts, cheques or bank drafts should be used. Money orders and Postal notes should be made payable at Dundas. Please add 6d. to country, Melbourne and Brisbane cheques, and 1/- to other interstate cheques for collection charges made by the banks.

SUBSTITUTING

Sometimes owing to crop failures or shortage of stock we sell out of some varieties early in the season. In such cases we substitute the nearest variety, and send to save disappointment, but in no case do we expect you to keep the substituted article if you do not wish to do so. If you put "do not substitute" we omit the variety, and return the balance. If you return the substituted seed we give you credit for the amount.

REGISTRATION

The safety of parcels can be assured by the payment of a small registration fee of three pence for amounts up to £2, four pence to £5, six pence to £10, which should be added to amount of remittance, and especially noted on order.

PROMPTNESS

As our first principle is promptness, it is advisable to inform us if your order does not come to hand or is not acknowledged within a reasonable time.

IMPORTANT NOTICE DESCRIPTIONS

Descriptions given in this catalogue are of the type plants from which seed crops have been grown and are intended to serve as a guide only to buyers. Under certain conditions of soil and climate considerable variation may occur with certain strains, particularly in respect to size, maturity and productiveness.

Where we have found any tendency to variation under any definite set of conditions or areas we have indicated it.

“Rumseys’ Honest Seeds” are tested for germination and vitality under soil conditions and trial grounds are maintained for testing new strains and trueness to type of existing varieties.

The use of modern equipment is a further protection for users of “Rumseys’ Honest Seeds.” We can test quickly and effectively all seed as it comes into stock, and at various times throughout the year.

Although at time of sale our seeds comply fully with the provisions of the Agricultural Seeds Act, 1921 (N.S.W.), there are certain things beyond our control which may affect growth. Therefore, for our protection against unscrupulous persons, all goods are sold subject to the following conditions:

CONDITIONS OF SALE

We believe that all Seeds, Bulbs, and Roots sold by us are of the description and kind specified by us at the time of sale, but owing to the practical impossibility in many cases of being certain of this, we give no understanding that such Seeds, Bulbs, or Roots will correspond with the description under which they are sold, and we make all sales subject to this condition. We further give no warranty, express or implied, as to their growth, description, quality, or productiveness, and will not be in any way responsible for the crop. If the purchaser does not accept the goods sold to him on these terms they are at once to be returned to us.

CAULIFLOWERS

Cauliflower seeds should be sown from December to March in the warmer parts and November to February, August and September in the cooler districts. Manure heavily before planting out; irrigate well or apply water before they get too dry. Extra early varieties are not recommended for the County of Cumberland. Where plenty of water is available for irrigating November sowing of early varieties in tableland districts are usually successful for autumn cutting.

Arlington

EARLY CAULIFLOWERS

ARLINGTON—● An early variety of exceptional quality. We have seen 2,000 plants, from which there were not six rogues. Every head perfect. The above Arlington photograph was taken from a head typical of them all. Pkt., 6d.; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 2/6; 1oz., 7/6; 4oz., 22/6; 1lb., 80/-.

FORDHOOK—Remarkable for its earliness, making a firm solid head 6 to 9 inches in diameter in 85 days after sowing the seed. The plants are dwarf and compact, the stem is short. Pkts., 1/-; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 5/-; oz., 15/-; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 45/-.

BURPEEANA—This cauliflower is not quite so early as Fordhook, but the heads are so uniformly shaped and formed as to be remarkable. The foliage is full and of a fine dark green, and the inner leaves curl over the head and protect it against the weather. Burpeeana has a beautiful white curd, smooth and free from small leaflets, between the sections, and very attractive on the table when cooked. Pkt., 1/-; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 5/-; oz., 15/-; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 45/-.

BURPEE'S BEST EARLY—● Is a splendid variety both for market and the home garden. It is a $3\frac{1}{2}$ month cauliflower, and sowings should be made in time to plant out not later than March or April for autumn crops, and August in the mountain and cooler parts. DRY WEATHER CAULIFLOWER—● This variety produces large pure white solid heads about a week later than the extra early varieties, such as Best Early. Its drought resisting qualities make it a very fine variety for Australian conditions, and many gardeners who do not as a rule succeed with cauliflowers will find it something worth while.

Pkt., 6d.; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 3/6; oz., 10/6; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 30/-.

MID-SEASON CAULIFLOWER

"EARLY" GREENLEAF (or Green Glazed).—This cauliflower is quite distinct, having dark green leaves with a shiny surface. It is sometimes called "aphis proof" from its resistance to those pests. From our experience this has been called Early because it heads up early in Spring, as it is not early maturing. Pkt., 6d.; oz., 8/-.

BORONIA GIANT—● This is one of the Broccoli-Cauliflower cross-breeds that has proved so suitable for the coastal districts and warmer parts of N.S.W. The Chinese gardeners for many years held a monopoly of the seed and each grew his own supply and only sufficient for his own needs. We have, however, after a long series of experiments, succeeded in growing limited supplies for our customers. Boronia Giant, planted out about the end of January or early February, will produce large snow-white heads about June, and in suitable localities, later planting will give equal results in 4 to $4\frac{1}{2}$ months from planting out. Pkt., 6d.; $\frac{1}{2}$ oz., 2/6; oz., 7/6; $\frac{1}{2}$ lb., 22/6. 1 lb., 80/-.

ASTERS

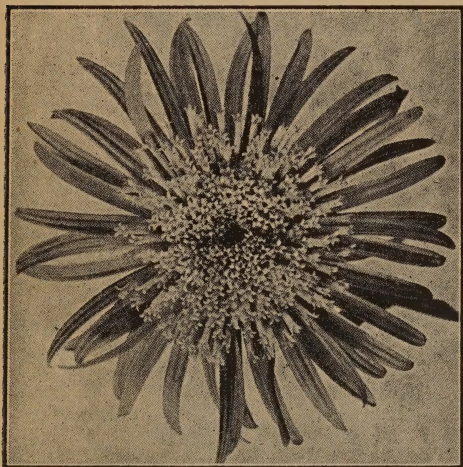

Asters are one of our specialities. Our strains are found on the show benches throughout the Commonwealth, for size and quality of bloom there are none better.

Sow aster seeds as soon as frost danger is over and in mild climates up to December. It is harder to germinate Aster seeds in midsummer when soil is hot than during mild spring weather. Plant out in fairly rich well drained soil and water regularly.

ASTER WILT.—Varieties marked (F.W.R.) have been grown from Fusarium wilt-resisting stock.

Giant California Sunshine Mixed.—

The colour in these new Asters is startlingly beautiful. A dual-tone effect is obtained through the contrasting tints of the disc-like centre and the outer or guard petals. Gracefulness of form is a distinguishing characteristic. The full centres of tubular, bifurcate petals surround the centre, creating an airy, lace-like effect, which is altogether charming. In colour the flowers may be described as varying shades of Enchantress-pink. Apple-blossom, Deep-rose, Blue and Lavender, but the disc, sometimes light yellow,

Californian Sunshine

Strawberry Plants

APRIL TO SEPTEMBER

All varieties perfect flowers except where mentioned otherwise.

We would advise our clients in all cases to choose two or more varieties of strawberry when planting, for the sake of pollination. Some sorts are naturally self-fertile, while most sorts set their fruit better when another variety is grown near them.

Our packing is so designed that we send plants safely to Africa and the Pacific Islands, or to any part of Australia or New Zealand.

 Asterisks following variety name indicates degree of resistance to "leaf scorch," a very troublesome disease in coastal districts. These indications are based on our experience at Dundas and may vary under different conditions.

PRICES (Freight or Postage Extra)

Allow extra for postage and packing. 6d. doz., 1/- for 25, 1/6 100 in N.S.W.; 1/- 100 extra to other States and Irrigation Areas.

Bellmar

One of the best of new sorts. Vigorous grower producing large conic shaped bright red berries from early spring until well into summer.

Southland * *

One of the most vigorous of strawberries, keeping up its growth well into the winter. Main crop to late variety. The berries are large, globose or sometimes slightly conic in shape. Bright red, with a glossy surface. The berries are sweet, less acid than many varieties. This has also done well in N.Z. where it was tried last year.

Adderton (656) *

Early variety which gives promise of becoming a popular home garden and local market variety. Rather soft for distant shipping.

Narcissus (U.S.A., 520)

Another new variety from U.S.A. which with us has made vigorous growth and produced large crops of marketable berries.

Blakemore

This berry was selected in 1927 by the head of the research laboratories of the United States National Preserves Association, and after severe tests selected as superior to all known commercial varieties for preserving. The following year it was selected as the best commercial variety in several districts. The berries are of fair size, bluntly conic, attractive, being bright light red, and colour well underneath, retaining their colour well. They are firm and carry well, being suitable for distant markets.

Senator Dunlap * * *

A variety which has proved particularly vigorous with us. Large fruit of good quality. Heavy cropper.

Howard *

This has also been known as "Premier." It is long conic in shape, fairly firm with red flesh, sub-acid, of good quality. The plants make runners freely. The foliage is very vigorous and healthy. Most suitable for home use and local markets.

Arlington (624)

This berry was sent to us as a new cross with only a number to it. It has done so well that we consider it worth a place. Its great value is its wonderful keeping qualities. The fruit is firm, dark red in colour, and of high quality. It is a good runner maker.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Due to unfavourable conditions for production of plants many varieties failed to make runners this season, so many of these varieties will not be available for 1936 planting season. When ordering please mention if we may substitute other suitable varieties if we have not the ones ordered.

Captain Cook * *

A vigorous grower bearing medium sized dark red berries in shape somewhat resembling Fendalcino.

Rhodes Special

This is a strawberry for a special purpose; it is so hardy that in the milder parts along the coast it puts on marketable crops right through the winter, and in the cooler parts is the first to bear in spring. It is very prolific, but should not be relied upon for late fruiting, as the berries are tender in hot weather. A good polliniser for Fendalcino.

Mason's Immense

A locally raised variety which has given promise as an early polliniser for Fendalcino on the lighter soils of the County of Cumberland.

Fendalcino * * *

The most popular market berry. Its beautiful form, large size and, above all, splendid flavour, make it also a good home garden berry. It is not, however, self fertile, and must be grown with another variety in at least every third row. Under this method it is very prolific.

French's * *

A vigorous growing variety producing fair crop of medium quality fruit. Its main value is in its disease resistance.

Melba *

A popular favourite in southern states and up-land areas.

Illawarra *

A locally raised berry bearing very prolific crops of large red berries. The plants are sturdy and stand hot weather well. If plants are put out late a good autumn crop may be secured.

Ettersburg, 89

Most prolific of all strawberries, therefore must be grown on well enriched soil. It is the best of all berries for jam and preserves.

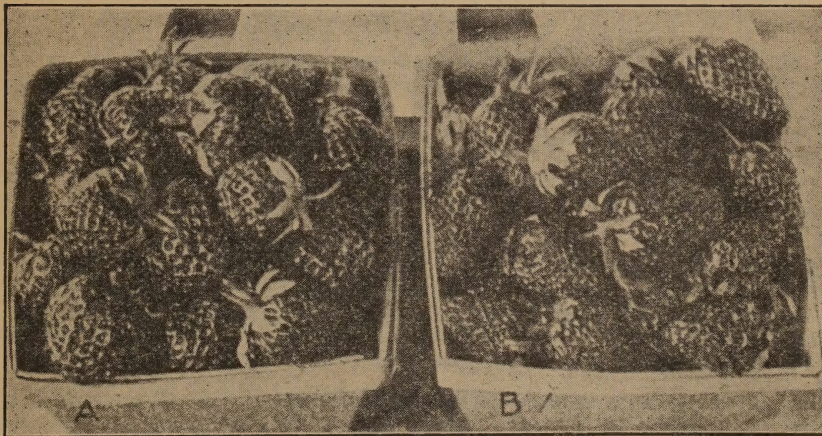

Other Varieties Also Available

Brandywine; Douglas Special (Wilkinson or Vquette).

A NEW BERRY BOOK.

Third edition revised and brought up to date and ready May, 1934.

As we are growing so many varieties of strawberry, it is not possible within the limits of a catalogue to describe them all. We would advise all our customers who care to know more about the different varieties of strawberry and their cultivation to obtain "The Australian Book of Berries," by Herbert J. Rumsey, which may be obtained, post free, for 1/1.

HOT KAPS

Hot Kaps are thin paper hoods for protecting seed and hastening germination. They are placed over a group of seeds and are later slashed, then removed as the season advances.

Hot Kaps are inexpensive and very effective and with methodical use they should more than pay their way.

Price :—11/6 per 100; £5/5/- per 1,000, freight extra. 1 dozen 1/6, postage 4d. extra.

Seedlings

We always advise gardeners to grow their own seedlings as it is generally more satisfactory to have plants on hand so as to take advantage of favourable planting weather.

Because of risk of loss in transit and unsatisfactory condition in which tender vegetable and flower seedlings frequently arrive at their destination, we prefer not to send these to country growers.

For those within calling distance of our nursery or Parramatta shop we shall always endeavour to have some good healthy seasonable seedlings available grown from our own best strains of seeds.

Raising Seedlings.—During late autumn, winter or spring pots or boxes generally give good results, but during the warmer part of the year we have found that it is much easier to keep an even moisture when a seed bed is used, as pots or boxes dry out very readily.

If a glasshouse or proper frame is not available, a rough frame may be made by boarding up the edges of a sheltered bed. This can then be covered with a hessian blind which may be rolled up during favourable weather.

Select a light friable soil containing about two-thirds good loam and one-third leaf mould, to which add a good sprinkling of sharp sand and sieve through quarter-inch mesh. Make sure drainage is good either in boxes or seed beds (these can be banked up for better drainage).

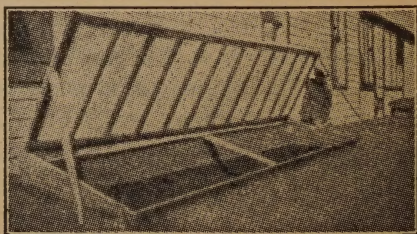

Soil at sowing time should be quite moist but never wet, and make sure surface is level.

Seed should be scattered lightly and evenly over the surface or in drills, and covered with very fine soil. Pots or boxes may be covered with a sheet of glass and then shaded with brown paper until seeds germinate, when paper should be removed and glass lifted to admit air. Water sparingly and from the bottom of the pot where possible. When seedlings are large enough to handle, prick off into boxes or beds of good soil, spacing the plants 1 to 3 inches apart. If sown thinly in drills in seed beds good strong plants may be obtained by thinning to save double handling.

Many flowering plants will do better sown in the garden where they are required to grow. Most of these are ones which produce seeds freely, and therefore being cheaper in price, may be sown freely to ensure an even stand. Soil should be in a nice moist condition but not wet. After breaking up with a spade or fork it should be well raked to produce a compact fine seed bed.

Seeds may be sown in shallow drills or in groups of 4 or 5 seeds six to twelve inches apart according to variety. Cover seed lightly about $\frac{1}{8}$ -inch for fine seeds, slightly deeper for larger seeds. Firm soil over seeds and mulch lightly with some well rotted manure, rotted tan-bark or sieved compost. If weather is dry, water when necessary. When plants are about 2 inches high, thin out to desired spaces and water well in case any roots have been disturbed during thinning operations.

Specialities in Trees and Shrubs

OLIVES

These hardy evergreen trees make excellent break winds and tall hedges. They are very ornamental. They thrive with minimum of care and without irrigation when once established. With cultivation and pruning they produce good crops of fruit suitable for pickling, canning, or oil. Suitable for Western Slopes and Riverina districts. Grafted trees 2/6 each, 27/- dozen, freight extra.

Verdale.—Good all-round variety, large enough for pickling and good oil content.

Hardy's Mammoth.—Large olive with good oil content. Tree not quite so large as Verdale.

Gollamella.—Small fruit but very high oil content and very heavy cropper.

Sevilliano.—Largest fruiting variety. Suitable only for pickling as oil content is very low.

SPIREA EXPANSA.

A new variety of Spirea (May) obtained from England. Small deciduous shrub growing to about 4ft. high. Leaves are tipped red in summer and autumn. Flowers are very compact and of a bright pink shade, being borne profusely throughout summer.

Good strong plants, April to July. 3/6 each, freight extra.

ADVANCED PLANTS.

We have advanced plants of many of our best trees and shrubs. For making an immediate display in new gardens they are much more effective than the smaller plants from pots.

The evergreens are grown in petrol tins but some of the deciduous species are lifted from the open ground in winter. Packing and freight charges on these are of necessity much higher than for plants from pots.

We shall be pleased to quote on request.

Eucalyptus globulus compacta.—A dwarf compact form of bluegum. Grows up to 30 feet on good soils. Excellent quick growing specimen tree. Young leaves greyish blue.

Small trees from pots, 1/6 each, freight extra. Also few larger trees in tins, 5/- each, packing and freight extra.

Callitris cupressiformis tasmanicus.—The Oyster Bay pine. One of the most ornamental of our native Cypress pines. Grows to 20 feet. Not subject to borer attack like Cupressus. Small plants, 2/- each; larger plants up to 10/6 each, freight and packing extra.

Bougainvillea: Mrs. Butt.—One of the best recently introduced Bougainvilleas. Flower bracts beautiful carmine crimson. Will not stand frosts. 2/6 each, freight extra.

Pentaptergium serpens.—An evergreen shrub growing to 3 feet. Does best in soils free from lime and frost-free situations. Scarlet tubular flowers hanging from arched branches. 2/6 each, freight extra.

WALNUTS and PECAN NUTS

Budded Trees, 7/6 ea.; doz., 87/-; postage or freight extra. See page 8.

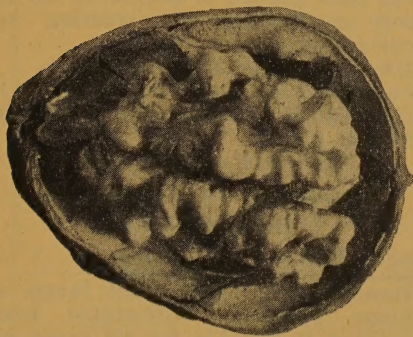

There have been two very serious drawbacks to the culture of these nuts in Australia, caused by the compulsory reliance upon seedlings for the supply of trees. Seedlings take from 12 to 15 years to produce a crop, and even then they are unreliable, as so many of the walnut seedlings prove subject to bacterial blight.

Walnuts

Not recommended for coastal districts in N.S.W. and Queensland.

The new budded nuts come into bearing in from one to six years, and in moist localities subject to bacterial blight, resistant varieties may be planted.

Walnuts should be planted early June or July otherwise they may not be properly established before hot weather starts in spring. Wilson's Wonder; Freshford Gem, Kelvin and Franquette.

WALNUT—WILSON'S WONDER

Pecan Nuts

Suitable for coastal as well as mountain and inland districts. Budded varieties take five to seven years to commence bearing. For full particulars and varieties see Nursery Catalogue, post free on request.

THE NUT BOOK

Lovers of nuts should not fail to get Mr. Herbert J. Rumsey's book, "Australian Nuts and Nut-growing in Australia," which may be obtained from us or from booksellers throughout Australia for 2/-, or post paid for 2/1.

Australian Nuts

The Macadamia nuts are now cropping well all along the coast line from Bega northwards. They make excellent ornamental trees or tall hedges and produce fine crops of edible nuts. Macadamia integrifolia bears twice yearly. Macadamia ternifolia bears annually.

Trees from 1/6 each, 15/- dozen; freight extra.

Skinner System of Irrigation

The best insurance against drought is a good water supply and an efficient system of distributing it. There is nothing to compare with the Skinner System in economy of operation and long life of usefulness.

One or two acres of lucerne under irrigation will provide a reserve of stock-feed for dry times. It is always possible to grow practically the whole requirements of fruit and vegetables for the home in all seasons when water is available.

In dry times vegetables are always a high price, which means a ready market in all towns for those who have them to dispose of.

The Skinner System may be worked from city water supplies or by plunger-pump from creeks, rivers or dams. Overhead supply tanks are not necessary, but homestead tanks may be filled in conjunction with watering operations.

Any handy man with tools can make up his own spray lines providing proper fittings are obtained from us and he has one of our special drilling machines. Or we can supply complete ready to erect.

The Skinner System spray lines may be fixed in permanent positions or made portable by inserting our special Quick-Acting Couplings every second joint. Lines fitted in this way may be conveniently moved by one man.

THE AUSTRALIAN BOOK OF BERRIES (3rd Edition)

The standard work on all small fruit culture, including :

STRAWBERRY, LOGANBERRY, RASPBERRY, GOOSEBERRY, CURRANT, &c.
Third Edition, entirely revised and brought up to date. Price: ONE SHILLING. Posted 1/1.

THE "A to Z" OF AUSTRALIAN FRUIT GROWING

Over 200 Pages. Many Full Page Illustrations

The aim of the author has been to make this book as helpful to the fruitgrowers as the vegetable book has been to the gardener. It deals with the culture of every variety of fruit suited to Australian conditions from "A to Z," including not only cultivation, but packing, drying, preserving, and bottling. The schedule of insect pests will be found very helpful. New Edition 2/-; Post Paid 2/1. We still have a few copies left of the old edition at 1/3 each, post paid.

THE GARDEN FAIR IN AUSTRALIA

This is a useful addition to the Garden Handbooks. It will be found to appeal to every flower and garden lover, dealing as it does with every aspect of the home surroundings. Beautifully illustrated. THE AUSTRALIAN TOMATO BOOK

The most complete work published in Australia on this most important crop, it will be found helpful to both amateur and professional and even as a cookery book will be worth its small cost. Second edition revised and enlarged, with chapter on tomato growing under glass. 2/-, posted 2/1.

THE AUSTRALIAN NUT, AND NUT GROWING IN AUSTRALIA

This book opens up a new subject altogether, and treats at length on matters that have been too long overlooked. PRICE: 2/-, posted 2/1.

THE POMMIES, OR NEW CHUMS IN AUSTRALIA

The circulation of this book should in itself do a great deal towards removing the sting that unthinking persons have placed in the word "Pommy." The word has been in use for over fifty years, and only recently has there been any objection to its use. Australia has been populated and built up by the pioneering spirit of the Pommies—ourselves, our fathers, or our grandfathers. The story is interesting, and just the thing to send home. Price 1/-, posted 1/1.

We will send any of the books at the prices named or when two or more are ordered at the same time they will be sent at the published prices without the extra charge for postage.
